- Restructuring of the NAC “Uzbekistan Airways” has been completed
- “Uzbekistan Airways" and "Uzbekistan Airports" joint-stock companies were established.
- Uzbekistan Airways Joint Stock Company (JSC) was established on the basis of the Directorate of the National Joint Stock Company and state unitary enterprises "Flight Complex", "Main Agency of Air Traffic" and "Material and Technical Supply Complex "Uzaviatekhsnab".
- All operating 11 airports of the republic were included in the structure of “Uzbekistan Airports” JSC
- State unitary enterprises - "Catering", "Training Center", "Uzbekistan Airways Technics" airline were transformed into limited liability companies (LLC)
- On the basis of airline "CAP" ("Special aviation works") it is created Open Company "Uzbekistan Helicopters".
- Uzbekistan Airways JSC acts as a founder for Training Center LLC, Ketring LLC, Uzbekistan Airways Technics LLC and Uzbekistan Helicopters LLC.

"Uzbekistan Airways":

- Opened sale of tickets for flights to Munich in connection with the introduction of a new regular route from April 1, 2020 in Tashkent - Munich - Tashkent
- Reduced economy class tariff levels to Mumbai, Baku and Nur-Sultan
- Increased free baggage allowance in the direction of Tashkent-Nur-Sultan-Tashkent
- Organized two press tours for the British media and a tour for bloggers from the Kingdom of Thailand
- Took part in the international tourism fairs TTG ITALIA RIMINI 2019, World Travel Market (WTM London 2019), JATA Tourism EXPO Japan 2019, as well as the 25th Tashkent International Tourism Fair "Tourism on the Silk Road", the Republican Industrial Fair and Cooperation Exchange, the 16th International Exhibition "Transport and Logistics TransLogistika Uzbekistan 2019", in the gala evening "Malaysia - Central Asia Fashion Designers";
- Presented air transportation services in Amritsar (India), St. Petersburg and in the south of Russia - in Rostov-on-Don and Krasnodar - as part of the presentation "Travel to Uzbekistan!”
- Recognized as the most punctual airline in the punctuality rating of the Heydar Aliyev International Airport (Azerbaijan)

- Received gratitude from Aerotour LLC (Russia) for intensive promotion of the tourist potential of Uzbekistan and support in organizing advertising tours for the directors of major travel agencies and travel bloggers of St. Petersburg and Moscow
- For the first time in Uzbekistan the training of pilots of civil aviation has started in the Training Center of “Uzbekistan Airways” JSC
- The 1st Flying and Dispatching Conference with participation of specialists of flight and dispatching services of Uzbekistan was held in the Training Center of “Uzbekistan Airways” JSC
- “Uzbekistan Airways Technics” celebrated its 95th anniversary - Uzbekistan Airways Technics took part in the Aeromart Nagoya 2019 aerospace exhibition
- Uzbekistan Airways Technics specialists have made the first C-check of the Boeing 787 Dreamliner.

Download PDF